+Introit 411 (2x)

*God is here today; as certain as the air I breathe,
as certain as the morning sun that rises,
as certain when I sing you’ll hear my song.*

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God,
whom alone we worship and serve.

MUSIC IN WORSHIP: The Introit is an Argentinian chant popular throughout Latin America. The early 21st Century Opening Hymn calls attention to post-resurrection meals. The Response to the Prayer of Place, Declaration, Intro and Response to First, Communion Music, and Sending are from the Taizé Community. The mid 20th Century Sermon Hymn was written by a beloved Presbyterian hymn writer (and former colleague of Pastor Gusti!) and is the official hymn of the 2024 General Assembly.

Psalm 48:9-12

We have pondered your steadfast
love, O Beloved,
in the midst of our hearts,
your holy temple.
We call on your Name, O Holy One,
and praise You to the ends
of the earth.
Your Word is our armor of strength
let us rejoice and be glad!
Let all peoples rejoice because
of your steadfast love!
