

SPC'S FINANCIAL HEALTH REPORT

All gifts are welcomed – large or small, donations of money or time and talent.

SPC is managing donations with care and a deep sense of responsibility to support the church's mission, staffing, and building.

SPC's financial health is stable currently because of a base of pledges with one-off or annual major gifts.

Financial information is available monthly in the Messenger.

Currently, we are 33% of the way through the year. We've received 38% of our anticipated income from pledged and general (regular non-pledge) giving, not including the major gifts received at the beginning of 2025. Overall, operating expenses are on track for this time of the year.

BUDGET AT A GLANCE THROUGH APRIL 30, 2025

Income and Expenses	2025 Budget (12 Months)	Actuals* (through April 30th)	Actuals as % of the 12-Month Budget
Operating Income	$385,104	$195,922	51%
Operating Expenses	$390,589	$129,023	33%

* Including major gifts

SPC'S FINANCIAL HEALTH REPORT

All gifts are welcomed – large or small, donations of money or time and talent.

SPC is managing donations with care and a deep sense of responsibility to support the church's mission, staffing, and building.

SPC's financial health is stable currently because of a base of pledges with one-off or annual major gifts.

Financial information is available monthly in the Messenger.

Currently, we are 33% of the way through the year. We've received 38% of our anticipated income from pledged and general (regular non-pledge) giving, not including the major gifts received at the beginning of 2025. Overall, operating expenses are on track for this time of the year.

BUDGET AT A GLANCE THROUGH APRIL 30, 2025

Income and Expenses	2025 Budget (12 Months)	Actuals* (through April 30th)	Actuals as % of the 12-Month Budget
Operating Income	$385,104	$195,922	51%
Operating Expenses	$390,589	$129,023	33%

* Including major gifts

This Week in Presbyterian Public Witness

ALBANY PRESBYTERY adopted A Statement on the National Moment, declaring, in part: God alone, as witnessed to in Scripture and embodied in Jesus Christ, is our ultimate allegiance and the object of our trust and obedience. We reject the elevation of loyalty to any personality, political party, or community above our duty to love God through love of others. In the name of Christ, we call on our fellow Christians to object to the anointing of political figures as messiahs and to resist the restriction of moral kinship to people who resemble or think like us. We urge our fellow Christians, as well as people of different or no religious commitment, to marshal the freedoms of democratic citizenship to redirect our politics to the common good. The principles of love and justice demand that we reshape public life in the US toward decency and mutual care.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSION YEARBOOK OF PRAYER recognized Palestinian Nakba Remembrance Day on May 15, with a prayer for a just and lasting peace between Palestinians and Israelis.

A MAJORITY OF PRESBYTERIES have now approved an amendment to the church Constitution that will require all candidates for ordination be examined for their commitment to “participation, representation, and inclusion” of the LGBTQIA+ community.

This Week in Presbyterian Public Witness

ALBANY PRESBYTERY adopted A Statement on the National Moment, declaring, in part: God alone, as witnessed to in Scripture and embodied in Jesus Christ, is our ultimate allegiance and the object of our trust and obedience. We reject the elevation of loyalty to any personality, political party, or community above our duty to love God through love of others. In the name of Christ, we call on our fellow Christians to object to the anointing of political figures as messiahs and to resist the restriction of moral kinship to people who resemble or think like us. We urge our fellow Christians, as well as people of different or no religious commitment, to marshal the freedoms of democratic citizenship to redirect our politics to the common good. The principles of love and justice demand that we reshape public life in the US toward decency and mutual care.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSION YEARBOOK OF PRAYER recognized Palestinian Nakba Remembrance Day on May 15, with a prayer for a just and lasting peace between Palestinians and Israelis.

A MAJORITY OF PRESBYTERIES have now approved an amendment to the church Constitution that will require all candidates for ordination be examined for their commitment to “participation, representation, and inclusion” of the LGBTQIA+ community.