

SPC'S FINANCIAL HEALTH REPORT

As of July 31, pledged and plate giving is in very good shape. Let's keep it up!

We are 58% of the way through the year and have received 68% of anticipated income from pledged and plate giving.

Two additional major gifts will help us close any gaps between income and expenses for the remainder of the year.

Operating expenses are in line with anticipated expenses.

All gifts are welcomed – large or small, donations of money or time and talent.

SPC is managing donations with care and a deep sense of responsibility to support the church's mission, staffing, and building.

Financial information is available monthly in the Messenger.

SPC'S FINANCIAL HEALTH REPORT

As of July 31, pledged and plate giving is in very good shape. Let's keep it up!

We are 58% of the way through the year and have received 68% of anticipated income from pledged and plate giving.

Two additional major gifts will help us close any gaps between income and expenses for the remainder of the year.

Operating expenses are in line with anticipated expenses.

All gifts are welcomed – large or small, donations of money or time and talent.

SPC is managing donations with care and a deep sense of responsibility to support the church's mission, staffing, and building.

Financial information is available monthly in the Messenger.

Prayer for Wholeness

Made new

Sometimes to be made “new”
means being changed, made better,
“new and improved.”

But sometimes it just means fresh,
in the moment. Now.
Each day is a new one.

I needn't seek the continual drama
of one version of myself after another,
though changes come.

I can enter into this moment—
a happening, like one breath,
new, present, and ready.

Steve Garnaas-Holmes

Prayer for Wholeness

Made new

Sometimes to be made “new”
means being changed, made better,
“new and improved.”

But sometimes it just means fresh,
in the moment. Now.
Each day is a new one.

I needn't seek the continual drama
of one version of myself after another,
though changes come.

I can enter into this moment—
a happening, like one breath,
new, present, and ready.

Steve Garnaas-Holmes