

Introducing Our On-Line Community

Joyce and Larry Neumark

Larry and Joyce Neumark have been married for 53 years. They met at West Virginia Wesleyan College and currently live in Boonsboro, MD. They have two grown sons and four grandchildren. Larry is a retired United Methodist clergy who pastored in local churches for more than 10 years until he became Protestant Chaplain at Frostburg State University, where he stayed for nearly 30 years, retiring in 2008. Joyce also retired in 2008 from a career in hospital administration and human resources in the Cumberland, MD area. They are both active at SPC where Larry leads the meditation group, Exploring Spiritual Practices (ESP), and serves on the Adult Education committee. Joyce plays in the newly formed handbell ensemble. In addition, they are both on the SPC Communications Team.

Introducing Our On-Line Community

Joyce and Larry Neumark

Larry and Joyce Neumark have been married for 53 years. They met at West Virginia Wesleyan College and currently live in Boonsboro, MD. They have two grown sons and four grandchildren. Larry is a retired United Methodist clergy who pastored in local churches for more than 10 years until he became Protestant Chaplain at Frostburg State University, where he stayed for nearly 30 years, retiring in 2008. Joyce also retired in 2008 from a career in hospital administration and human resources in the Cumberland, MD area. They are both active at SPC where Larry leads the meditation group, Exploring Spiritual Practices (ESP), and serves on the Adult Education committee. Joyce plays in the newly formed handbell ensemble. In addition, they are both on the SPC Communications Team.