

GATHERING OUR HEARTS

Introit

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown; will you let my name be known;
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, whom alone we worship and serve.

ENCOUNTERING GRACE

Prayer for Wholeness

God of my integrity, in whom knowledge of truth and passion for justice are one; my heart was sentimental and you cleansed it with your rigorous mercy; my thoughts were rigid and you engaged them with your compassionate mind. Heal my fragmented soul; teach my naivety; confront my laziness; and inflame my longing to know your loving discernment and live out your active love, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Kyrie eleison (2x)

Lord, have mercy, Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy on us.

Declaration of Grace & Gratitude

*Response

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Vocation

It comes from the Latin vocare, to call, and means the work a person is called to by God.

There are all different kinds of voices calling you to all different kinds of work, and the problem is to find out which is the voice of God rather than of Society, say, or the Superego, or Self-Interest.

By and large a good rule for finding out is this: The kind of work God calls you to is the kind of work (a) that you need most to do and (b) that the world most needs to have done. The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet.
