THE FONT OF IDENTITY

+Introit

Come to the table of grace.
Come to the table of grace.
This is God's table;
it's not yours or mine.
Come to the table of grace.
Come to the table of love.
Come to the table of love.
This is God's table;
it's not yours or mine.
Come to the table of love.

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one true God, whom alone we worship and serve.

Prayer for Wholeness

Season of winter, be our teacher.
Teach us to know when enough is enough.

Season of winter, be our teacher.
Teach us to hear the cries of a world
dying at our own hands.

Give us the faith of this season
to believe that it all has meaning,
that nothing – nothing – is lost.

In a world where food is a weapon,
let us take from this table
the bread of peace.

Give us this day our daily
bread. Jesus

From food, all creatures are produced; by food, all creatures that dwell on earth live;
into food, they finally pass.
Taittiriya Upanishad

Let the bread of your word
and the bread of education come into our huts made of cane stalks and straw, into our cardboard shacks, and let us
carry them in our knapsacks
as we travel through life.

11:00 a.m.

Whenever you are in doubt about what you should do,
recall the face of the poorest and most helpless person

whom you have seen

and ask yourself if the step you contemplate

is going to be of any use to that person,

if it will restore some sense of control

to that person over her or his own life and destiny.

Will it lead to self-rule for the hungry

and spiritually starved millions of our sisters and brothers?

If so, then you will find your doubts

and yourself melting away.
