GATHERING OUR HEARTS

Introit (2x)

What does the Lord require of you?
What does the Lord require of you?
To seek justice and love kindness and walk humbly with your God.

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, whom alone we worship and serve.

ENCOUNTERING GRACE

Prayer for Wholeness

We give thanks, merciful God, that in Christ, you seek to unite all things in heaven and in earth, to reconcile all people to one another and to You, to heal all that is broken. We confess that the new creation is not yet complete in us, and that we feel everywhere the barriers that separate us from each other and from your creation. Free us. Help us tear down walls of selfishness, hatred and fear. Fill us with Your Spirit of oneness, and empower us to love, fully and freely, in the way and in the spirit of Jesus. Amen.

Kyrie eleison (2x)

*Credo

With believers in every time and place,
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

*Song of Hope

May the God of hope go with us every day,
Filling all our lives with love and joy and peace.
May the God of justice speed us on our way,
Bringing light and hope to every land and race.
Praying, let us work for peace; Singing, share our joy with all;
Working for a world that’s new,
Faithful when we hear Christ’s call.

*Charge and Benediction

*Postlude

Within our present world disorder of circus living, faith invites us to see, live and tell the story of the tended garden.

Susan S. Phillips

What would it mean to our ways of life, our demographics, our economics, our output of carbon dioxide and methane if we began to truly and viscerally think of ourselves as just one species among many? Bill McKibben

We should not attempt to “manufacture” church growth, but rather to release the biotic potential which God has put into every church.

One rose from the world’s garden is enough for us. In the field, the shade of that flowing cypress is enough for us. Diwan of Háfiz

To the one who knows nothing, mountains are mountains,
waters are waters,
and trees are trees.

But when he has studied and knows a little,
mountains are no longer mountains,
water is no longer water,
and trees are no longer trees.

But when he has thoroughly understood,
mountains are once again mountains,
waters are waters,
and trees are trees.
