

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw. O LORD, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you "Violence!" and you will not save? Habakkuk 1:1-2

Trouble and anguish have come upon me, but your commandments are my delight. Your decrees are righteous forever; give me understanding that I may live.

Psalm 119:143-144

We give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, because your faith is growing abundantly and the love for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith.

2 Thessalonians 1:3-4

Jesus said: "The Promised One has come to search out and save what was lost." Luke 19:10

Charge and Benediction

Postlude

Life and death are one thread,
the same line viewed from different sides
Lao Tzu

Death is a stripping away of all that is not you. The secret of life is to die before you die - and find that there is no death.
Eckhart Tolle

Life was such a fragile thing - as delicate and as beautiful as a butterfly, as ephemeral as a sunset. Death is peaceful.
Death is quiet, silent. It is calming.
Akanksha

Death must be so beautiful. To lie in the soft brown earth, with the grasses waving above one's head, and listen to silence. To have no yesterday, and no tomorrow.
To forget time, to forgive life, to be at peace.

All Saints Sunday

November 3, 2019

11:00 a.m.

ALL SAINTS

For the saints of all the ages who have baked the bread of faith and allured us with the aroma, we sing praise.

For the saints in our own lives who,
finding their way through the dark
became our light,
we give thanks.

For the unseen saints in this world who hold it up with their prayers, whose hope and labor
save us without our ever knowing,
we cry glory.

For the suffering saints
who are our only hope in this world, who languish in prisons and slums,
reservations and townships,
who labor in fear, who are trafficked and tortured,
who die of hunger even as we pray, we ask blessing.
May we all be made holy in wonder and gratitude and steadfast loving kindness toward all that lives
