

God shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Isaiah 2:4

Pray for the peace of the world!
May all nations prosper as one!
May peace reign among all peoples, and integrity dwell within every heart!

Psalm 122:6-7 (Merrill)

You must be prepared, for the Promised One is coming at the time you least expect.

To Our Guests

Glad you're with us. Please sign the guest book by the front door and fill in a visitor's card from the pew pocket. After the service enjoy a cup of fair trade coffee with friends in the Fellowship Hall.

GATHERING OUR HEARTS

Introit (2x)

Come now, O Prince of Peace; make us one body.
Come, O Lord Jesus; reconcile all people.

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
The love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God,
whom alone we worship and serve.

Call to Prayer

Lift up your hearts
We lift them up to the Lord

ENCOUNTERING GRACE

Prayer for Wholeness

Spirit of Christ, in your advent you come to form us into a people of hope, peace, joy, and love. But so often we fail to make space for you. We have been deformed by a world of cynicism, despair and alienation. Stories of scarcity and systems of violence shape us. Free us from all that separates us from you. Awaken in us a sense of wonder and mystery and appreciation for the miracle that is your creation and the magic of our deep connection with all that is. Lead us again in your way of choosing love every minute of every day. Amen

Kyrie

Lord, have mercy, Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy on us.

Declaration of Grace & Gratitude

Response

Love has come and never will leave us!
Love is life everlasting and free.
Love is Jesus within and among us.
Love is the peace our hearts are seeking.
Love! Love! Love is the gift of Christmas.
Love! Love! Praise to you, God on high!

Credo

With believers in every time and place,
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death
can separate us from the love of God
in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Response

My heart shall sing of the day you bring.
Let the fires of your justice burn.
Wipe away all tears, for the dawn draws near,
and the world is about to turn

Postlude

“In God, My Faithful God”

Dietrich Buxtehude

It is now, at Advent, that I am given the chance to suspend all expectation... and instead to revel in the mystery.

Jerusalem Jackson Greer

How are you traveling these days? As we cross into Advent, what kind of journey would you like to take through the coming weeks? Even as you attend to the necessary preparations, might there be anything you need to let go of in order to travel more lightly through this season, and with greater openness to how God might show up for you on the way?

Jan Richardson

Someone I loved once gave me a box full of darkness. It took me years to understand that this, too, was a gift.

Mary Oliver

The signs are all around us—the breaking down that precedes the breaking through. Constant reports of violence and devastation, the increasing mayhem of distrust and fear. And at the same time, see how compassion sprouts like leaves?... don't squander your energies on what does not heal and bless. Pour yourself out for what matters most, for the promise of summer that even now, as it grows darker day by day, is near. Kayla McClure

ADVENT BLESSING

darkness still grows
(but the light is gathering)

bread has been broken (but justice is slipping through)

economists are today's oracles
(but the word is now ready to speak)

blood has been spilled (but the moment is turning)

the journey is lonely
(but the angels stir)

the handmaid labours
(but the child waits)

go into advent
with expectation
the headlines are being rewritten
