*Nothing can trouble; nothing can frighten.
Those who seek God shall never go wanting.
Nothing can trouble; nothing can frighten.
God alone fills us.*

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God,
whom alone we worship and serve.

Call to Serve

The voice of God calls to us,
as it called to Isaiah, saying *Whom shall I send,
and who will go for us?
And I said
Here am I; send me!*

Response

Nothing can trouble; nothing can frighten . . .

Prayer for Wholeness

Preserve my life, O Blessed One, though I walk in the midst of trouble.
As I face my fears and doubts,
uphold me with the strength of your Presence.
Guide me as I pray to fulfill my purpose on earth.
Do not forsake me as I call upon You.

Fear

It is said that before entering the sea
a river trembles with fear.
She looks back at the path she has traveled,
from the peaks of the mountains,
the long winding road crossing forests and villages.
And in front of her,
she sees an ocean so vast, that to enter
there seems nothing more than to disappear forever.
But there is no other way.
The river can not go back.
Nobody can go back.
To go back is impossible in existence.
The river needs to take the risk of entering the ocean
because only then will fear disappear, because that's where the river will know
it's not about disappearing into the ocean,
but of becoming the ocean.
