+Introit 70 (2x)

What does the Lord require of you?

What does the Lord require of you?

Justice, kindness, walk humbly with your God.

To seek justice and love kindness and walk humbly with your God.

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God.

Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God,
whom alone we worship and serve.

"Live Into Hope"

Prayer For Division

God of tension and beauty,

Give us the gift of the beautiful

as we try to survive the tragedies of this world.

Awaken us to the artists and creatives in our midst - those whose songs, and paintings, and words, and films can hold the seams of our souls together when under the harshest duress.
Remind us that violence and oppression cannot conquer beauty itself.
That our love, our lament, our rage,
are each in their own way
messengers of beauty in an aching world.

+Kyrie 575 (2x)

Lord, have mercy upon us;

Christ, have mercy upon us;

Lord, have mercy upon us.

All My Friends Are Finding New Beliefs

All my friends are finding new beliefs.
This one converts to Catholicism and this one to trees
...
and I am finding it harder and harder to keep track of the new gods and the new loves,
and the old gods and the old loves,
and the days have daggers, and the mirrors motives,
and the planet's turning faster and faster in the blackness,
and my nights, and my doubts, and my friends,
my beautiful, credible friends.

Christian Wiman

MUSIC IN WORSHIP: The Introit is a 20th century meditation on Micah 6:8. The Opening Hymn was written by a beloved 20th century Presbyterian hymnwriter. The Kyrie and Alleluia are 20th century versions of traditional liturgical texts. The First Pew Response invites us to receive the wisdom of our children as if they have been the voices of angels, using a beloved 18th century French Christmas Carol. The text of the 19th century Sermon Hymn is attributed to 'Pauline T.' The Offertory originated as an Icelandic song in 1977 and was popularized in 21st century America by Josh Groban. The Sending Hymn is an Argentinian folk melody.

BACK TO SCHOOL SUNDAY, August 21, 11am. Celebrate our children and youth "Moving Up." Special Youth Postlude homage to summer.
