Prayer for Prosperity

Traveling roads all even and peaceful you learn’d from joys and prosperity only,
But now, ah now, to learn from crises of anguish,
advancing, grappling with direst fate and recoiling not,
And now to conceive and show to the world
what your children en-masse really are,
(For who except myself has yet conceiv’d
what your children en-masse really are?)

MUSIC IN WORSHIP: The Introit and Sending are from the Taizé community. The Opening Hymn is a late 20th century text set to a tune that dates to the transition between plainchant and modern tonalities. The Kyrie and Alleluia are traditional liturgical texts. The Response to the Declaration and First Pew pairs an early 21st century text with a 15th century tune. The early 21st century Sermon Hymn celebrates the radical hospitality of Jesus.

Psalm 13

How long, my Beloved?
Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
How long must I bear this pain in my soul,
and live with sorrow all the day?
How long will fear rule my life?

Notice my heart and answer me, O my Beloved;
enlighten me, lest I walk as one dead to life;
Lest my fears say,
"We have won the day;"
Lest they rejoice in their strength.

As I trust in your steadfast Love;
my heart will rejoice, for in You in freedom.
I shall sing to the Beloved, who has answered my prayers
a thousand fold!
Come, O Beloved, make your home in my heart.
