The Hill We Climb, excerpt

This is the era of just redemption. We feared -- at its deception. We did not feel prepared to be the heirs of such a terrifying hour, but within it we found the power to author a new chapter, to offer hope and laughter to ourselves.

So, while once we asked, "how could we possibly prevail over catastrophe?", now we assert, "how could catastrophe possibly prevail over us?" We will not march back to what was, but move to what shall be, a country that is bruised but whole, benevolent but bold, fierce and free. We will not be turned around or interrupted by intimidation.

Because we know our inaction and inertia will be the inheritance of the next generation. Our blunders become their burdens. But one thing is certain. If we merge mercy with might and might with right, then love becomes our legacy and change, our children's birth right.

*Credo

With believers in every time and place
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

*Sending (2x)

Gloria, gloria, in excelsis Deo! Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!

If today's church does not recapture the sacrificial spirit of the early church, it will lose its authenticity, forfeit the loyalty of millions, and be dismissed as an irrelevant social club with no meaning.

Sabbatical Transition

Pastor Mary Jane will begin preaching today and leading worship in its entirety next week.

Pastor Gusti's pastoral care responsibilities have concluded as of yesterday.

Please reach out to your Deacon or to Pastor Mary Jane with pastoral concerns.

Next Sunday Pastor Gusti will worship in the pews with the congregation and be commissioned for her sabbatical.

The hospitality committee will host a reception following the second service to welcome Pastor Mary Jane and send Pastor Gusti off in style.

Pastor Gusti will continue to shadow Pastor Mary Jane through February 14, to ensure a smooth transition.

Prayer for Wholeness

Resistance, excerpt

I must be the heavy globe
of hydrangea, always bowing by summer's end. Must be salt, like sadness at a burning city,
an ethical disobedience. I must be a violet thorn of fire. These days
I don't taste good, but I must be singing and boneless, a lily.
I must beg for it, eyes flashing silver as a fish. Must be a rosary of listening. This is how I know to love.

Traci Brimhall

Sung Response 575 (2x)

*Lord, have mercy upon us; Christ have mercy upon us;
Lord, have mercy upon us.*

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord is with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God:

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth!
Your heavenly will be done
by all created beings!

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another,
forgive us.

In times of temptation and test, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory
of the power that is love,
now and forever. Amen.

Eternal Spirit

Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, source of all that is and that shall be,

Parent of us all.

Loving God, in whom is heaven.

The hallowing of your name echoes through the universe!

Sung Response

All shall be well. All things shall be well.

JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION

753 Make Me a Channel of Your Peace

Prayer of St. Francis

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

Though popular opinion credits this prayer to Francis of Assisi, the earliest known printing was in a French religious magazine in 1912. Yet that gentle saint's spirit seems evident in these words, a quality that has spurred many paraphrases and musical settings such as this one.

This hymn from a noted New Zealand hymnwriter affirms that God's hospitality transcends the barriers erected by human society and that we who have been created in God's image are called to live in ways that reflect our Creator's values: justice and joy, compassion and peace.
